

GARRETT HEMANN ROBERTSON P.C.

KEVIN D. GLEIM
Attorney at Law

Principal Areas of Practice

Real Estate Transactions & Development, Business & Corporate Law

Kevin Gleim represents individuals, businesses, public entities and non-profits throughout Oregon with an emphasis in business planning and real estate transactions. He counsels individuals and businesses on transactions such as business entity selection and formation, the sale of property and business assets, leases and land use.

Mr. Gleim guides businesses and public entities in the interpretation and application of the myriad statutes and regulations that govern everyday operations. Using his past experience working for the state and federal government and drawing on his academic emphasis on law and government, he assists clients in navigating the complexities of these laws with ease.

While in law school, Mr. Gleim was a law clerk for the United States Attorney's Office and served as the Editor in Chief of the Willamette Environmental Law Journal where he gained valuable experience researching and analyzing complex legal issues. He was also a legal extern for the Office of Governor Kate Brown, where he gained experience in researching and analyzing proposed legislation and the effects on the day-to-day lives of Oregonians.

Education

Willamette University College of Law, J.D., magna cum laude, 2018

Whitworth University, B.A., summa cum laude, 2015

Professional Distinctions & Affiliations

Oregon State Bar, 2018

Willamette Valley Inns of Court, member

Dean's Honors List, Willamette University College of Law

Willamette Environmental Law Journal, Willamette University College of Law, 2016-2018

Willamette Social Justice and Equity Journal, Willamette University College of Law, 2016-2018

Willamette University Public Interest Law Project, Willamette University College of Law, 2015-2018

