

GARRETT HEMANN ROBERTSON P.C.

CalLEN S. STERLING
Attorney at Law

Principal Areas of Practice

Employment and Labor Law, School and Public Entity Law, Human Resource Consultation

Callen Sterling represents school districts, ESDs, and community colleges on a wide range of matters, including employment and labor issues.

Ms. Sterling is experienced in the public sector of legal practice and worked as an Assistant County Counsel in Coos County, and then as a Deputy County Attorney in Linn County. During this time, she gained experience related to contract review, land use issues, public meetings and records laws, as well as public contracting.

Before joining the firm, Ms. Sterling worked as an attorney for the Oregon School Boards Association, where she assisted school districts and other educational entities in resolving issues pre-litigation. She provided training on topics such as sexual harassment and discrimination, hiring practices, accommodating disabilities, employee termination and discipline, workplace investigations and student and staff transgender issues. During law school, she was the Articles Editor and Summer Editor for the Law Review, was on the Dean's Honor List in Fall 2010, and won a Merit Scholarship. Ms. Sterling joined the firm as an associate in 2019.
