

GARRETT HEMANN ROBERTSON P.C.

GILBERT A. COTTO-LAZO

Attorney at Law

Principal Areas of Practice

Complex Civil Litigation, Employment and Labor Law, Professional Negligence Defense, and Appellate Law

Gilbert Cotto-Lazo assists in the defense of healthcare providers, lawyers, school districts, and business owners throughout Oregon. His practice is oriented primarily around the defense of negligence, tort, and employment claims in state and federal court. Mr. Cotto-Lazo also advocates for clients before the Oregon Court of Appeals.

Mr. Cotto-Lazo has experience in federal, state circuit, and appellate courts. Prior to joining Garrett Hemann Robertson P.C. he served as a judicial clerk to the Honorable John V. Acosta and the Honorable Jolie Russo of the United States District Court. Mr. Cotto-Lazo also served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Steven R. Powers of the Oregon Court of Appeals and at Lane County Circuit Court with the Honorable Charles Carlson.

In addition, Mr. Cotto-Lazo is a member of the Marion County Bar Association and Oregon Association of Defense Counsel. Mr. Cotto-Lazo has family in Oregon and California and enjoys playing guitar and piano, as well as photography.

Education and Admissions:

University of Oregon School of Law, J.D., 2020

University of California, Santa Barbara, B.A. in Philosophy, 2015

United States District Court for the District of Oregon, 2015

Professional Distinctions & Affiliations:

Oregon State Bar, 2020

Marion County Bar Association

Oregon Association of Defense Counsel