Principal Areas of Practice

Complex Civil Litigation, Divorce & Family Law

Mackenzie M. Patrick supports our family law and domestic relations clients with divorce, adoption, child custody and spousal support issues. She also supports various clients in state and federal court litigation. As a passionate advocate and strong communicator, Mackenzie balances the academic legal analysis necessary to successfully represent the firm’s clients with the compassion and EQ to help our clients in what can be an emotionally fraught experience.

Long before Mackenzie attended law school, she was dedicating her time and talents to supporting families and children through her work with The Boys and Girls Club of Ohio, Planned Parenthood, DoSomething.org, Equality Ohio, SARNCO and the YWCA in Columbus Ohio. She continued to pursue her passion during law school as an Extern for The Supreme Court of Ohio Children and Families Section wherein she aided in the development of policy and programs in domestic relations and juvenile welfare.

Given Mackenzie’s longstanding and deep dedication to the well-being of clients, families and children, she thrives on supporting the firm’s clients through challenging circumstances and helping them achieve the best possible outcomes for all involved.
